Prayer Promoter

Today we pause and softly say, a prayer for those who gave their days,
Who stood with courage, proud and true, and gave their lives for me and you.
They left behind the ones they loved, the families they were dreaming of,
They answered when their country called, and gave their lives, their hopes, their all.

Their footsteps may no longer fall, their voices silent missed by all.
But through the years their memories stayed, a lasting light to guide the way.
So let us never fail to see, the precious cost of liberty,
Let every flag that waves above,
Remind us of that strength and love.

And on this day with hands sincere, we hold their memories every near,
For those who gave their lives that day, we honour them on Veterans Day.

We remember
We Honour
We will never forget.

Girls' Brigade

The Girls' Brigade are collecting milk bottle lids between now and mid-November.

If you have any spare lids, please pass them on to any of the GB leaders or leave them on top of the cupboard in the small hall.

Thank you for your support!

Many thanks
Laura-Jane

Youth Dedication Service – 15th November

Next Sunday15th November is our Youth Dedication Service. This is a special service to celebrate our young people. We will be joined by our Girls' and Boys' Brigade companies.

Ways & Means - Accordion Evening
Friday 20th November

We are hosting the Gary Blair Accordion Orchestra on Friday 20th November in the church hall. This is always a very enjoyable evening with a chance to sing along to well-known tunes and even a dance or two if you feel so inclined.

This will start at 7pm and tickets are now on sale from Aileen McColl and Betty Usher priced at £5, which includes a light supper.

Please come along and support this event.
